Lyrics:

What a feeling
That I can be done believing that
We both felt the same
Was all in my head
Drinking in every word you said
Now I control the rains

You can't make me cry
My well has run dry of
The excuses that I used for you

And if I cross your mind,
Know I'm on the other side of
All the heartache that you put me through
It's so relieving not to think of you

Each text that I sent
Every well-worded compliment
Took love and time from me
In my soul, you held a place
My camera roll was half your face

But now the space is free

When you're leaving please don't let me know
I never thought the day would come that I'd love to see you go

You can't make me cry
My well has run dry of
The excuses that I used for you

And if I cross your mind,
Know I'm on the other side of
All the heartache that you put me through

I will admit I'm scared to think you'll disappear
I commemorate with how you've changed me, and that I'm still here

You can't make me cry
My well has run dry of
The excuses that I used for you

And if I cross your mind,
Know I'm on the other side of
All the heartache that you put me through
It's so relieving not to think of you
